FACULTY

Superintendent

To the Students of Armstrong Twp. High School:

It is with Best Wishes and Good Luck that I write this brief note. It is also with the hope that your school days have been of great value to you, perhaps even somewhat enjoyable. I firmly believe that each of us truly enjoys those activities which we attempt to do our best.

—Mr. Husted

Principal

It is my sincere hope that we at Armstrong High School have given you seniors some experiences and learning situations that will help you achieve your highest goals and expectations in the future. To the underclassmen, we will endeavor to give you more than we have in the past; and at the same time we hope that you will dedicate yourself to making Armstrong High School the educational community that will help you the most in the years to come.

The quality of a school is determined by the people in it and by others who affect it in one way or another. No school can be better than the desires and efforts of the students, the teachers, parents, and other people in the community.

—Mr. Stagen

Board of Education

Front row: Harry Ashcraft, Glen Reynolds, President; Keith Blackford, Secretary; Joe Cler. Back row: Richard Fourez, Claus J. Hovel, Mervin Frerichs.

A thank you to the students and faculty for helping make this a good school.

We have got to build a better man before we build a better society.

What lies behind us and what lies before us are tiny matters compared to what lies within us.

Senior Reflections

Shall I tell you the secret of the true scholar? It is this:
Every man I meet is my master in some point, and in that I learn of him.

—Emerson

Where should the scholar live? In solitude, or in society? In the green stillness of the country, where he can hear the heart of Nature beat, or in the dark, gray town, where he can hear and feel the throbbing heart of man?

—Longfellow

He (the scholar) must be a solitary, laborious, modest, and charitable soul. He must embrace solitude as a bride . . .
That he may become acquainted with his thoughts.

—Emerson

To talk in public, to think in solitude, to read and to hear, to inquire and to answer inquiries, is the business of a scholar.

—Samuel Johnson

"Learn while you're young," he often said,
"There is much to enjoy, down here below;
Life for the living, and rest for the dead!"
Said the jolly old pedagogue, long ago.

—George Arnold

Life's all getting and giving,
I've only myself to give.
What shall I do for a living?
I've only one life to live.
End it? I'll not find another.
Spend it? But how shall I best?
Sure the wise plan is to live like a man
And Luck may look after the rest!

—Rudyard Kipling
